Thanks Jeri! I know how challenging it is to get everyone on the same page, so I much appreciate your coordination here. I've already conferred with John and we did the Doodle poll together... so you do not need to add him, but I'd appreciate adding him to your email list for any coordination correspondences on the potential site visit.

I'm not sure if your process requires you getting a signed access consent form, but if you do, please include the attached form if possible. We prefer getting a signed consent, but it is not necessary...verbal while we show the property owners or representative our EPA identification and credentials would suffice, especially with eyewitnesses around. So if this consent form would compromise and make the process more challenging for you, then don't worry about it.

Gratitude,

So far it looks like the 31st & the 1st have the most availability. Do you want me to add John Marshall to the poll? If so I need his email address.
